

CLASSIFICATION SECRET

COUNTRY East Germany

REPORT NO.

TOPIC Military Information from Fuerstenberg

25X1X

EVALUATION

PLACE OBTAINED

25X1C

DATE OF CONTENT 25 November to 12 December 1953

25X1C

DATE OBTAINED

DATE PREPARED 20 January 1954

REFERENCES

PAGES 2 ENCLOSURES (NO. & TYPE)

REMARKS

25X1X

1. On 12 December, the Droegen barracks in Fuerstenberg on the Havel River was occupied to capacity. On 26 November, reports of infantry weapons were heard from the Carlshorst training grounds. From 2 to 12 December, soldiers almost daily constructed trenches and shelters on the training ground at the rear of the barracks installation.

25X1

1

25X1C

2. On 12 December, the Kastavensee barracks was occupied below capacity. On 28 November, about 300 men with field packs were observed leaving the installation toward the railroad station and, later, entraining toward Neustrelitz.

25X1C

25X1C

25X1C

25X1

2

25X1

3. On 12 December about 40 to 50 soldiers drilling in the Ravensbrueck concentration camp

25X1C

25X1

CLASSIFICATION SECRET

SECRET

25X1A

- 2 -

4. On 2 December, sedans [redacted] which were occupied by officers, were observed at the restricted area on the southern perimeter of Roeblinee. A board fence, 300 meters long, was under construction in the restricted area. 1. 25X1C

5. At about 4:30 p.m. on 25 November, a train of 2 passenger cars with officers, 43 boxcars with enlisted men and 1 gondola car with briquettes passed through the Lychen railroad station toward Templin. At about 5 p.m. on 27 November, a train of 1 passenger car and 46 boxcars with enlisted men also passed through the Lychen railroad station toward Templin. 3

6. On 3 December, about 200 men dug trench shelters, machine gun emplacements and foxholes along the Dannenwalde - Fuerstenberg road. Several trucks [redacted] shuttled to the site trunks of trees and timber cut to size. 25X1C

1. [redacted] Comment. The installations reported are still occupied as indicated in previous reports. [redacted]. The digging work reported in paragraph 6 is believed to be that described in paragraph 1. [redacted] 25X1A 25X1C

2. [redacted] Comment. It is believed that, from personnel exchange and limited service activities during this season, [redacted] erroneously concluded that the barracks installation on the Kastaven See was occupied below capacity. It is assured that, as stated in a previous report in late November, the complete 33d Gds Mtz Rifle Regt of the 9th Gds Tank Div, was in the installation in mid-December. [redacted] 25X1 25X1A

3. [redacted] 25X1A

SECRET/